

All is not forgotten - by Ayesha Gray.

Aware of death sweeps over our city,

Aware of death sweeps over our city

Isolated, all alone, No one to call out to,

No where to go, nothing to do.

A rainbow of radioactive light

It's all over, Hiroshima's gone, but not without a fight!

The nightmares over yet we still hold heavy hearts

Our city is once again United Joyous rainbows overlook our city

The streets are bustling, busy, so much going on I feel dazed

Together stronger than ever

With hope in our hearts we never say never ひろしまが生き返る

Hiroshima Comes Back To Life

Choking from the burning smell of fire,
Choking from the burning smell of fire,
Seeing everyone in shock,
When hours turn to days we see change,
Suddenly air is black from the smoke,

The fire is clear around you we move on,
Everybody is breathing freely with no one choking,
People are delighted with peace ~~everyw~~ everywhere,

The air is clear from black to clear,

A life of Misery :

A city covered in sadness, hollow hearts cry,
A city covered in sadness, hollow hearts cry,
Roaming down isles of misery, tears of hope drop second by second,

The cherry tree stood bare, lifeless, ~~g~~orrowfull Caestrophic, destructive smoke and fire fell the lungs and hope is gone and faith has dried,

Working, working together rebuild,

The fire is out, the air is clean, we move on,
The nightmare is over but we still hold heavy hearts,

The cherry trees bloom again, pink petals fall like snow,

A wake up of happiness and joyfull comes back,

A wake up of happiness and joyfull comes back.

Hiroshima

Walking down the aisle of flames,
Walking down the aisle of flames, population slowly going down, As people are dying,

Everyone breathing in the smoke,

Time passes by but we shall not forget,

The city is rebuilt, children are playing,

The air is fresh and clean,

The fire is no more,

The fire is no more,

Noh Travel Song

families isolated, all alone, bare in pain, hope is gone,

families isolated, all alone, bare in pain, hope is gone,

Hearts are hollow, querying why, pain hope,

The cherry trees are departed, hope, lifeless,

The community are petrified, screaming in pain?

This occurrence should not happen again,

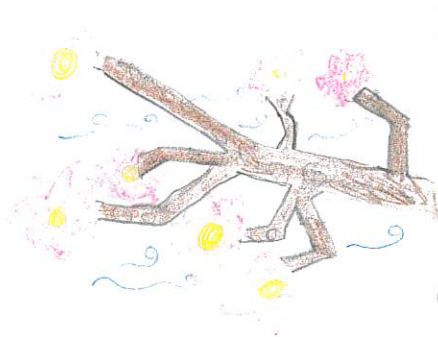

The people of the city are mesmerised as our city,

The cherry trees are ready to blossom and grow,

Everyones hearts are filled, gliding with faith,

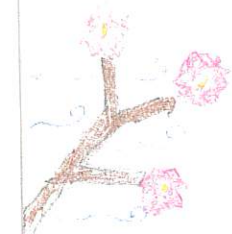

People admire the streets of the new spectacular city,

People admire the streets of the new spectacular city.

Hiroshima's Memories

Sadness everywhere, hope has died,
Sadness everywhere, hope has died,
Fire burning, radiation poisoning fills the air,
Trees stood bare, petals fall, trees withered,
Heartbroken families look for their children,
Heavy, hollow hearts lay, depression, grief,
"Time is like a book, This chapter changes us forever," High, peaceful hearts fly, joy, relief,
Happy families look back, smiling,
Trees grow back, petals glinting in morning dew,
Fire, gone, radiation kills no more, life,
Happiness has been restored,
Happiness has been restored,

Hiroshima!

Crashing, screaming, crying.

Crashing, screaming, crying.

The blasting of fire heating out.

Misery and pain on everybody's faces.

Heart pounding, miserable, fear.

Working and working together we rebuild.

We need to have peace.

Lets have fun and lets make our world bright.

Fun, excitement, cheerful.

Fun, excitement, cheerful!

Hiroshima journey

Strolling down the aisles of glances, petrified
and frozen,

Strolling down the aisles of glances, petrified
and frozen,

people slowly dying all around us, everywhere,
Frozen to the ground, frozen in fear,

Screams you hear from everyone, everywhere,

Frozen to the ground, frozen in fear

I'm dreaming in terror,

Now it's out, we live a happy life,

You hear the city again,

City rebuilt and we have peace!

City rebuilt and we have peace

A Hiroshima

The sire and the yells,

the sire and the yells,

people suffocating as the awful smoke,

No one will forget one ^{memory} memory, children want reconciliation,

The sky is bright, people rebuilding it,

No one will forget a dreadful bomb, people unhappy and depressed,

No one will give up on this place,

The city is happy,

The ^{city} city is cheering,

The city is cheering,

Journey through Hiroshima

The burning smell of fire,
The burning smell of fire,
People heartbroken everyone injured, depressed.

The cherry trees ^{stood} blossom, beautifully ^{sorrowful}

Dark clouds in the air, dull

Now we are overcoming this fear and sending peace

The smell of fresh air, cooling

People recovered starting to smile, happy

The cherry trees blossom, beautifully

The white clouds in the air, bright

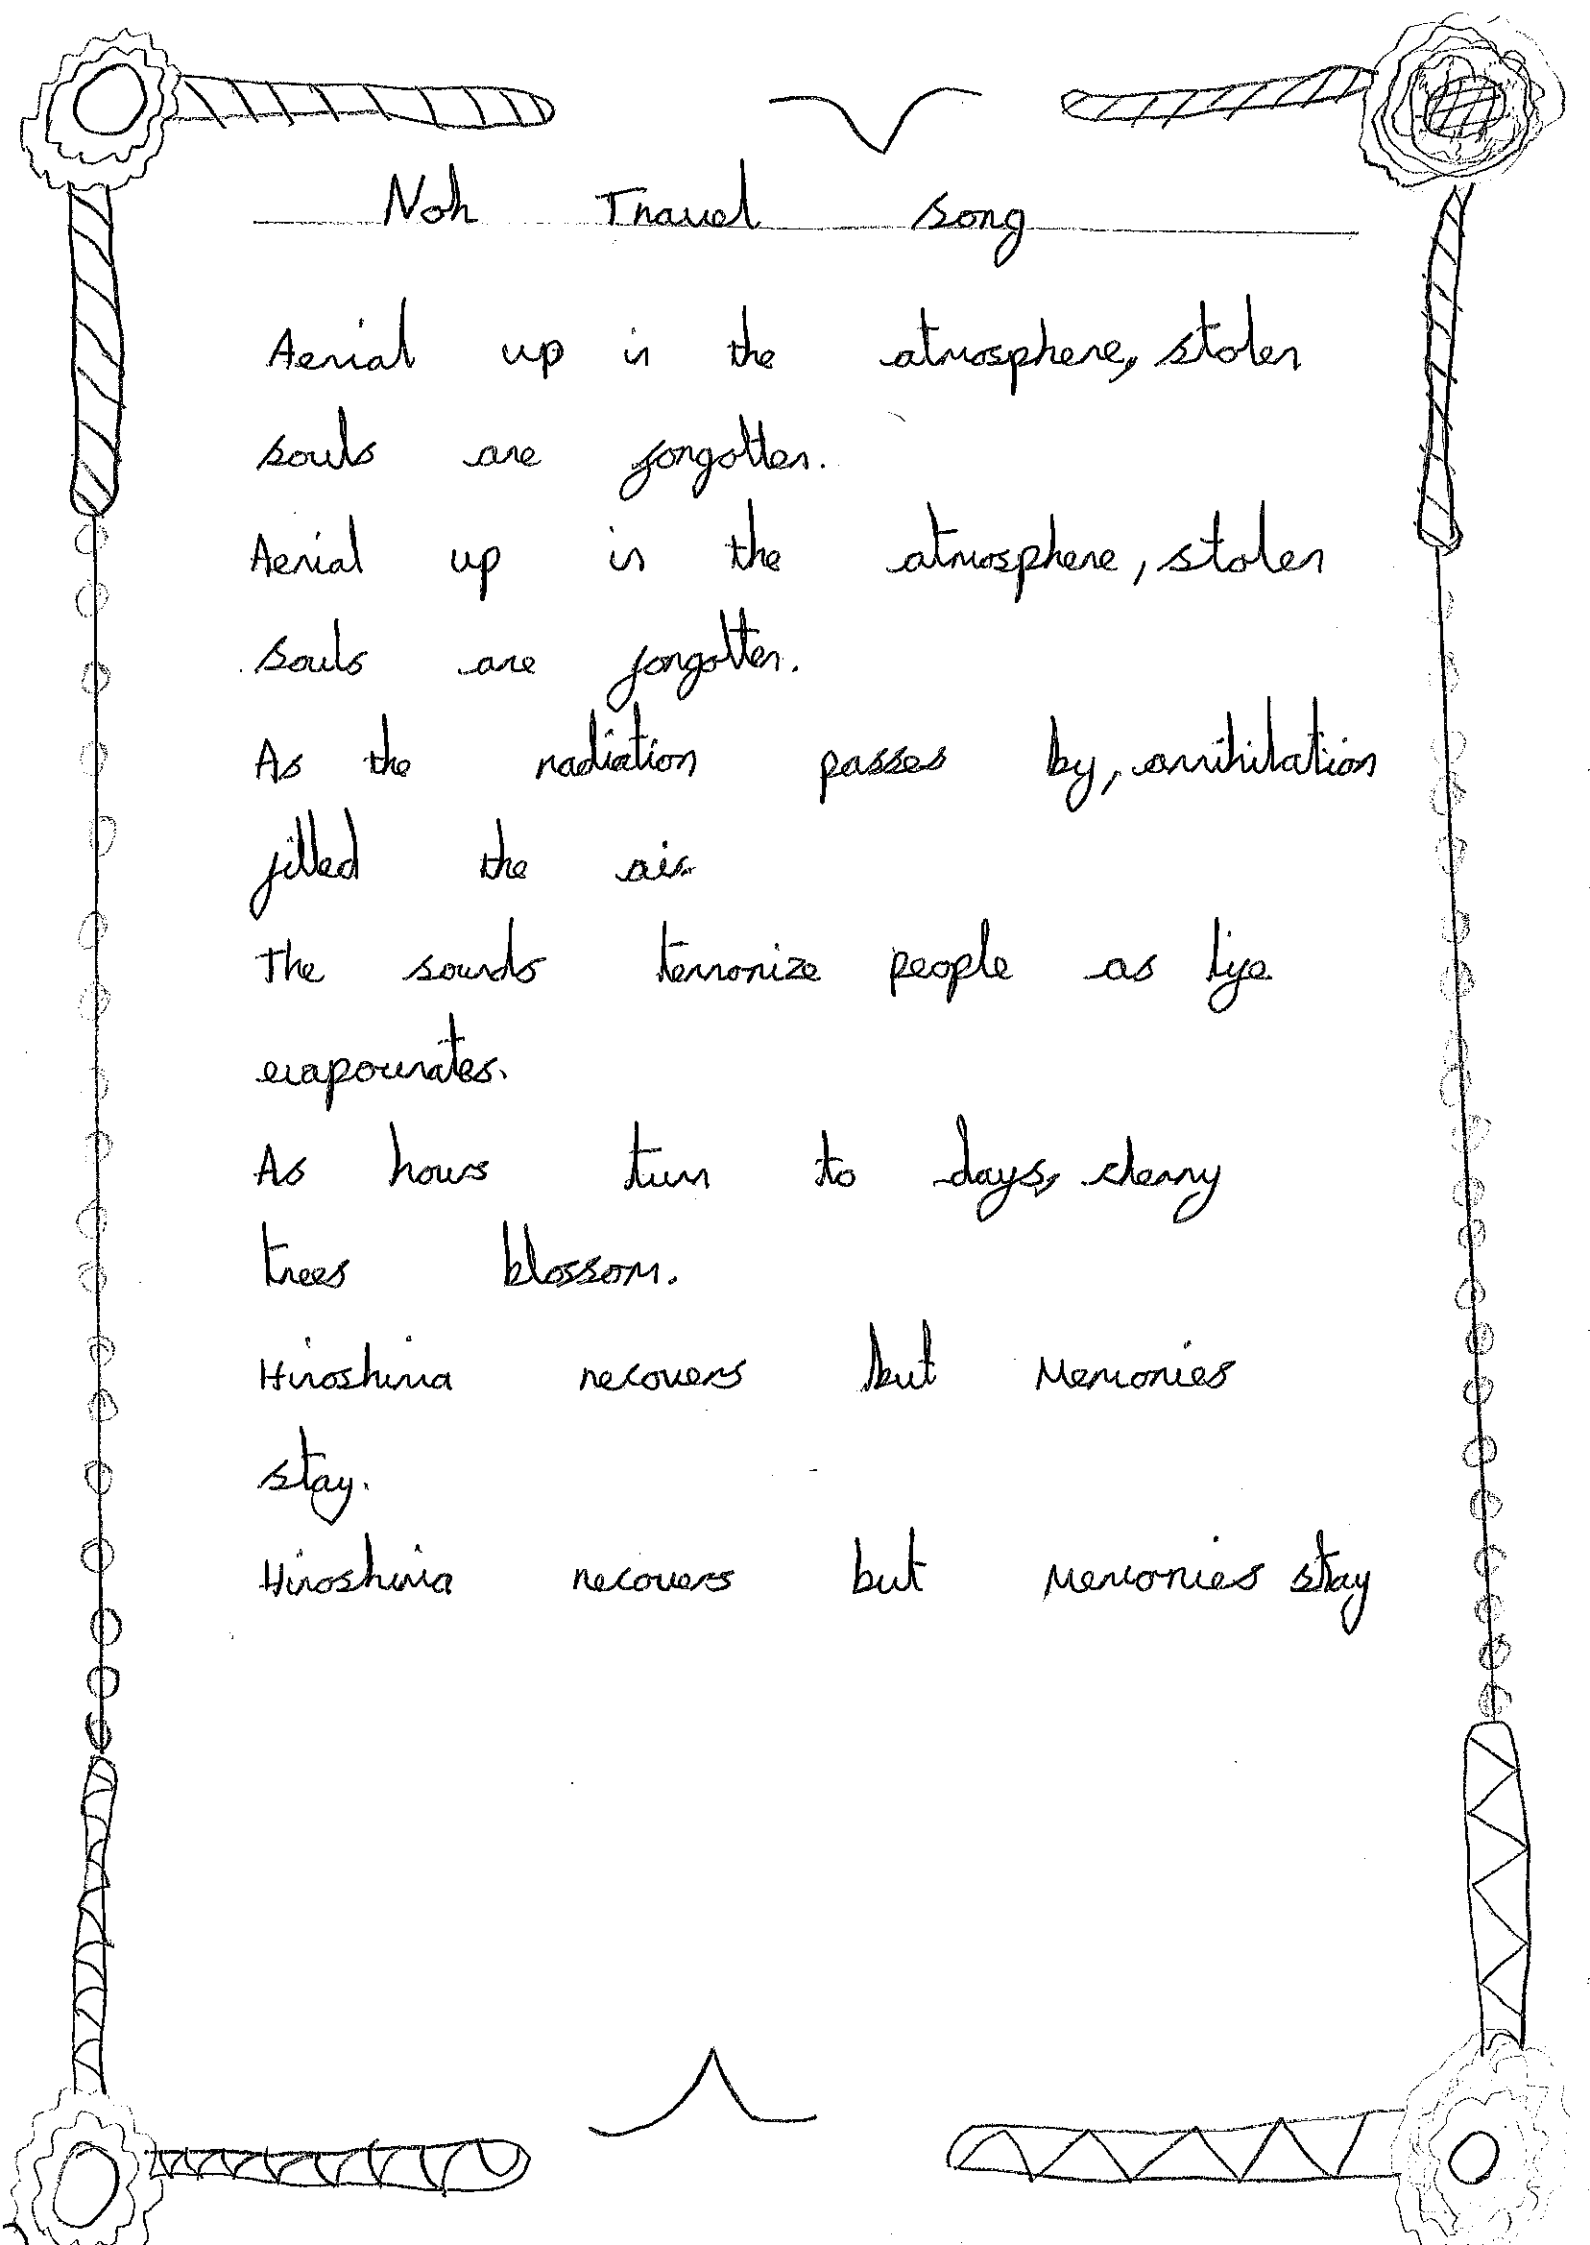

Hiroshima's Souls

High up in the atmosphere filled with forgotten souls,
High up in the atmosphere filled with forgotten souls,
As the radiation spreads there is nothing alive,
As you see high in the sky, there is darkness,
Now the extermination is here.

As hours turns to days the cherry tree blossoms.

Now the massacre is over, peace is here,
Hovering in the sky the sun is bright,
The radiation is gone, there is something alive,
High up in the atmosphere the forgotten souls are remembered,

High up in the atmosphere the forgotten souls are... remembered.

Noh Travel Song

Aerial up in the atmosphere, stolen souls are forgotten.

Aerial up in the atmosphere, stolen
souls are forgotten.

As the radiation passes by, annihilation filled the air
The sounds terrorize people as life evaporates.

As hours turn to days, cherry trees blossom.

Hiroshima recovers but memories stay.

Hiroshima recovers but memories stay old Hiroshima, new!

Chocking to death, people dying,
Chocking to death, people dying,
don't know where my family, just don't know what to do, my heart is pounding
Sweating and haggard
I hope this is over soon

The game is over,

The game is over,

rebuild things, beautiful and peaceful gone gone

love is here once in for all

* Haru shima world !!

city covered in darkness hollow hearts cry

city covered in darkness hollow hearts cry

The wind blows out of the sun,

The shiny eyes are in the sea.

People don't like when they die in the sea. There's pink petals all around

The circles. There's pink petals all around

The circles. the light is wonderful and it's really light, I go into the tree you are the tree for meee.

Hearts all around the world are floating,

Hearts all around the world are floating,

The sky is blue, the sun is yellow.

The End

The Sorrows of Hiroshima

Standing, blankly, through the flames,
Standing, blankly, through the flames
Our Souls, Faith, lost, forgotten, lifeless
No one, cares, Everyone is, dead

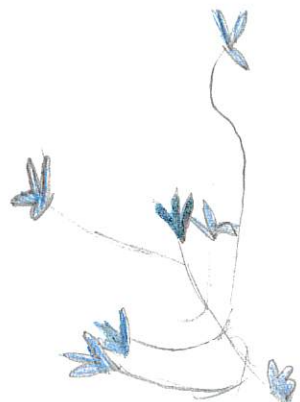

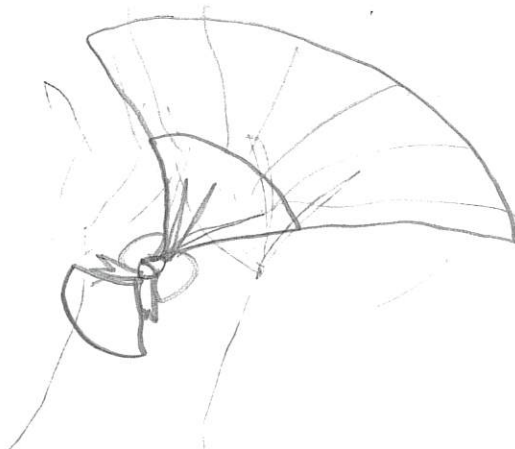

"This chapter of the book 'time' was corrupted"

Everyone Joyous, So many, Smiles

Faith is restored, unforgetful, alive

Standing joyfully, through the atmosphere, the corruption ended
Standing joyfully, through the atmosphere, the corruption ended

The End

Hiroshima Boming

We hear screams but not peace,

We hear screams but not peace,

There's downheartness on peoples face, people slowly dying of radiation, darkness is within the city, all you could see is limping but not strolling, the city is repaired, time passes, peace started and depression stopped, you could see daylight and peace,

the city regenerated and peace came

the city regenerated and peace came

Hiroshima Never forgets :

Fire through the lands , no one can see ,

Fire through the lands no one can see ,

Screams down the circles of pain , as trauma runs through ,

Memories all forgotten of the old Hiroshima because of the Nuke ,

No oxygen in the air , choking , dying , evaporated ,

We rebuild from then on , as we fight for peace ,

Oxygen in the air , gentle , breathing , living ,

Never forget the traumatising experience of Hiroshima , as the spirits roam ,

Laughs from the children , enjoying a day out ,

Peace through the lands , as our city regenerates ,

Peace through the lands , as our city regenerates .

Hiroshima poem:

Hiroshima bomb were like a thousand ^{pays,} ~~pays~~ Hiroshima bomb were like a thousand pays,
Everyone was inhaling the smoke in the air, Dark affective cries that the people could not help,

The city were all at pain but know one could reach,

You could even hear dreadful cries,

City's re-built everyone should get back to peace once again,

City's re-built everyone should get back to peace once again.

Bomb

Hiroshima rises again - By Leeda Doud

Roaring through the blazing, smoldering air, muddy feet, aching and bare.

Bloody bodies, injured or dead, the scene makes her dazed, up in her head.

The children were hollering, the doctors were fixing.

Soon time had passed, and healed all wounds, but it changed her life.

It will definitely, will get better soon.

Now the blossom trees are doing & dancing, five happy birds are singing.

It's now all over, we live in peace together.

It's now all over, we live in peace together.

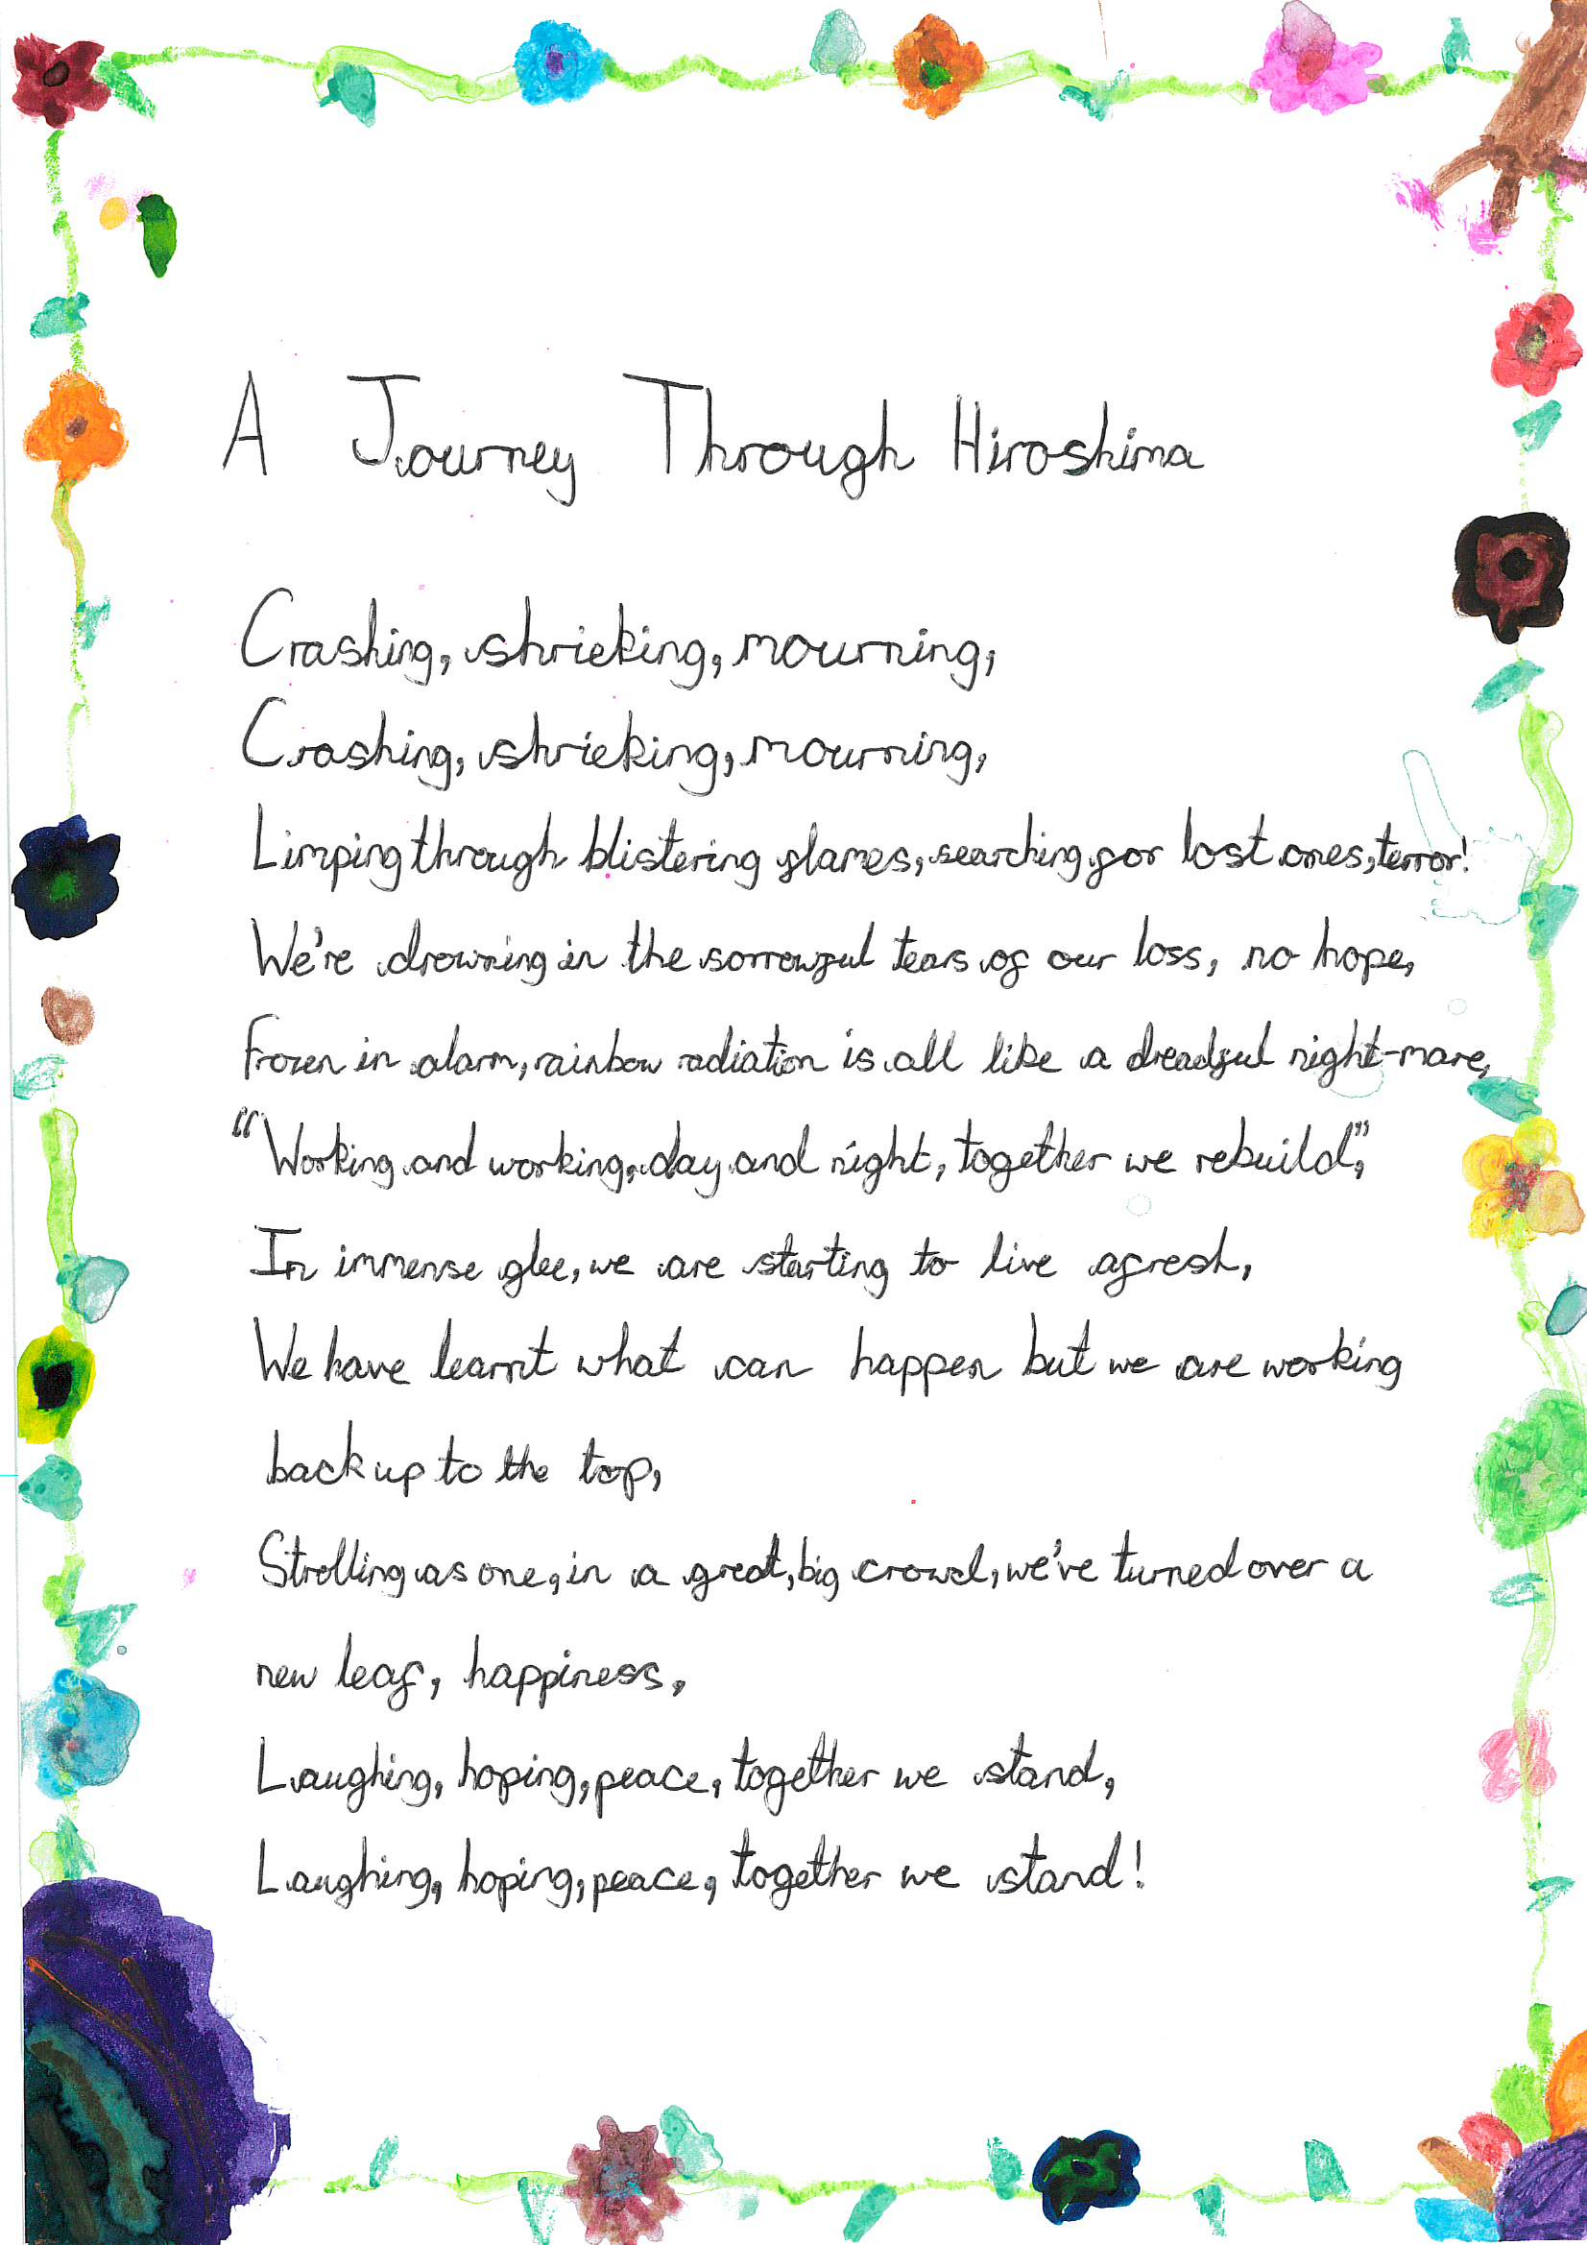

1 Travelling through Hiroshima

I hear crying and not peace,
I hear crying and not peace,
people choking and losing their faith,
The cherry trees stood there listless and plain,

Terresying, Disastrous, catastrophic
The nightmare is over, we will remember the disastrous thing that happend, There's no more fire, the air is clean,
The sky is blue, there's no more smoke,
Everything now is cleared and rebuilt,
Everything now is cleared and rebuilt.

A Journey Through Hiroshima

Crashing, shrieking, mourning,

Crashing, shrieking, mourning,

Limping through blistering flames, searching for lost ones, terror!

We're drowning in the sorrowful tears of our loss, no hope,

Frozen in alarm, rainbow radiation is all like a dreadful night-mare,

"Working and working, day and night, together we rebuild,"

In immense glee, we are starting to live again,

We have learnt what can happen but we are working back up to the top,

Strolling as one, in a great, big crowd, we've turned over a new leaf, happiness,

Laughing, hoping, peace, together we stand,

Laughing, hoping, peace, together we stand!

Travelling Through Hiroshima

Fires and flames, carnage, burning,
Fires and flames, carnage, burning,
People dying, families falling,
Cities demolished, homes vanished,
Sights filled with smoke and flames,
But together we overcome with unity,
People healthy, active and strong,
Cities reunited, homes better than ever,
Sights filled with clear blue skies,
Rainbows, lights, peace and harmony,
Rainbows, lights, peace and harmony.

Hiroshima

Flames rise above the golden skies,
Flames rise above the golden skies,
Screams terrorize the people of Hiroshima,
Burning wood, choking everywhere,
Radioactive gas fills the air,
As hours turn to days, Hiroshima, we will rebuild,

The air is clear, with purified water,

Soft winds flow along, the city,

The singing calms down
the people,

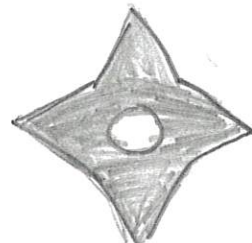

We will live, peace forever,

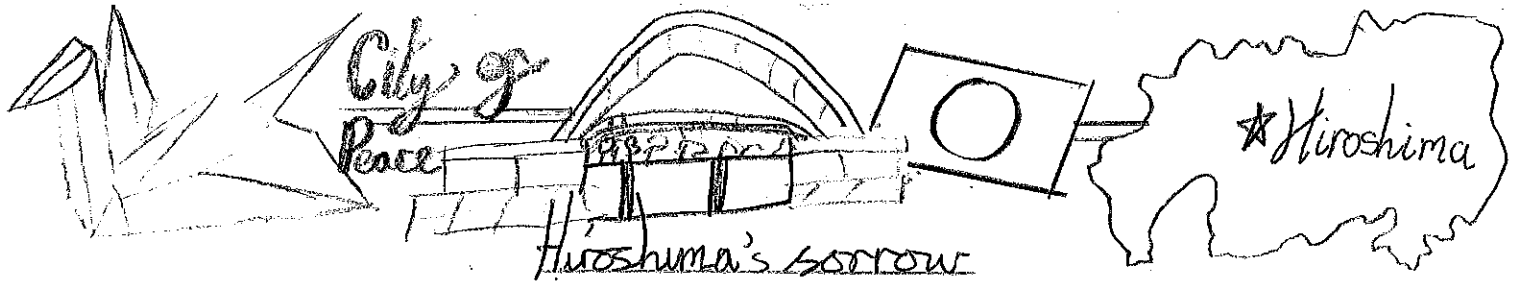

We will live, peace forever,

Hiroshima

Shocking flames above the skies,
Shocking flames above the skies,
Screams terrorize the people of the city,
Disasterous lungs filled with smoke,
The glooming city of horror is now in pain,
Time passes we won't forget,
Hours turns to minute our city's rebuilt,
Time passes it won't change,
The choking of the people is now gone,
Time passes our history won't change,
Time passes our history won't change,

Skies full of darkness, flames jump out, cries of sorrow
Skies full of darkness, flames jump out, cries of sorrow
Humanity has disappeared, along with faith,
A blossom of life, is not to be seen,
No emotions or feelings, Trauma hearts are empty,
No buildings, No nature, No happiness,
Slowly, days turn to years, time passes, hearts recover,
Peaceful streets, cherry trees blossom, full of joy,
Cheerful days, laughter and smiles, hearts full of content,
Kids running through the ruins of the Hiroshima streets,
Society becomes more diverse, faith finds its way back,
Peace is restored, reconciliation is established,
Peace is restored, reconciliation is established.

Hiroshima

Darkness, Darkness is all I can see,
Darkness, Darkness is all I can see,
With Shreiks of panic filling my head, flames of fire keeping me cornered,
Isolated and alone not knowing where to go,
Abandoned and scared all alone,
Time is horrid disastrous and true,
I can't escape this unfortunate life, fix this city with friendship and love,
rebuild this city,
rebuild this city,
forever and ever, we'll be left in peace,

Hiroshima Remembers...

Darkness spreads around, mournful
cries surround,

Darkness spreads around, mournful
cries surround,

Smoke muffles the air, forcing its way around,

Buildings brutally collapsed, just like our hearts,

The faithful city is expanding,
Hope is building up, like our city,

The veins of our city are developing, we are healing Happiness hugs are city.

Hiroshima

Darkness, Darkness, is all I could see,
Darkness, Darkness, is all I could see,
The ~~s~~schreeches x ~~s~~screeches of terror, filling my head,
Injured, hurt people,
Crying in pain,
Flames of fire, keeping me trapped,
I can't escape,
As the daylight shone, the cherry trees blossomed,
The kitters were running, the birds were rising,
The flames were gone, the air was ~~x~~clean x clean,
Recovering, working, together we rebuild
I'm free
I'm free

Travelling Through Hiroshima

Running down, flames of fire, terrified,
Running down, flames of fire, terrified,
Destructive bombs, crashing down, traumatising,
The cherry trees stood dead and bare,
Terrified people, filled with flaming smoke,
Time passes but we still stand strong,
Our people are healed, no smoke in them,
Beautiful cherry trees, rise and bloom again,
Deathly bombs are gone, no more killing,
Strolling down the streets, relieved and free,
Strolling down the streets, relieved and free.

Hiroshima's Memory

Walking downward, a lonely street,

Walking downward, a lonely street,

Sadness everywhere, belief has died,

Tears sprinkle, like a watering hose,

As hours turn into days, time heals

Hope and hard work bring back clear life,

The fire is out, the air is clear, we move on,

The struggle and long wait brought happiness,

The fear of being isolated and alone is no more

The fear of being isolated and alone is no more
